

I'm still in unbelief at the superbowl halftime with Justin Timberlake ripping off Janet Jackson's partial shirt to expose her breast... Did you see this... I did not ask to see pornography during the superbowl half time... this surely does not respect my right as an American citizen... or my families. I hope that your intention is to take action against whoever is responsible for this. How can we even watch family television anymore??? Ruth Barnes age 43 Texas Thanks for listening.
